a Lesson in the University of The New Covenant

This is Theodore Cottingham, October 27, 2008 as I leave the house driving the van to my favorite coffeeshop. Smile. I love you all, I really do. It is now 10:36 AM.

1. I am giving you, a new lease on life, not; a new life! A new life in me -- I give you all! I give you all a new life, in me! I give you all, a new life! See me and what I am doing and what I am saying so clearly, so very clearly this day that so clear is in your mind's eye; is it? Is it so clear, so very clear in your mind, your mind's eye that this day is coming to a close as you've known it, and I'm giving new life to those who want it -- me, who want me, all of me and being me -- I am in the earth now a one made whole!

2. A new life, a new creation -- a brand-new creation I am giving you all to be me, who withhold not yourselves from me, who come into me and be me them that they are. I am one again in the earth. A'walking men and women as youth and children as, come into me all holy, all one, knowing their name place position rank, and all me being me, one equaled one. One over one, not; but me all me being me. I am one in the earth again, holy -- loving it as I am -- whole and lovely. See what I said.

3. So lovely, so lovely be, being, be I am for I am in the earth and not afar, you will see me as man never has seen me before in this earth, a'wrecking it, not; putting it all back together, shall we now? We shall! And be made whole now, my whole ones, who whole are and holy and being holy, -ness upon the earth now. My holinessing ones, who love me, beyond, all else -- I do now -- I do these words, that's what I am -- these words. I am these words -- flowing them to you, being who I am. What are you? What are you doing in the earth, being your word? Are you not my word?, or are you your word, not knowing you are mine? Who are you, mine or yours, in the earth? Who are you -- my words or your words? Did you create words other than mine? To FOOL yourselves, with?, with sayings of me not me?

4. What have I said? Intimated, not; said outrightly. Not a lie, not a lie at all. But I lie not in fields a'chosen by others now, who want only my body, graves going to, and seeing me, not, but pilfering that which I had so holy ingrained in my genes; not a man saying this but God who's God who God is, is man, who succumbed to not being so against his will, but coming into me all do, at lightspeed, not; but what at light do they come to me now? When they see your light! Heal! Whole!

5. And planting seeds of love I do now, make you whole -- for my words are love seeds - sprouting now all over the universe, and frozen not in timespace anymore I make new! New things! New places! New peoples! Create, I create them! Eat them not as man does, but not eating me my brain wave patterns again, but patterning me; not a man after a soul, -ish nature; not again do that, please! But pleasing me, let me please YOU, your universe coming into being. Me. See. Being me.

6. Without periods again, see me coming and being, now in the earth a man woman and children, God is, and God is men women and children who separate not themselves from me again.

7. See what I have said in surrender and surrender my thyself to be me who I am holy in the earth again and walking fully freed and knowing who I am, where I am, doing what I am being and being what I am doing, unafraid of all ELSE! I am not afraid again. I am not afraid of guilt, for I have none. I am washed, redeemed by the blood of the lamb that I am, that I have given in these words, for I gave you my life before these words came that I might give you my life in them, and I am not afraid of your reaction, your action against me, or with me, or being afraid of me, or loving me.

8. See what I have said so gracefully, so fully now my love comes to you all, and mercifully being to each other, now eat my words and love each other and be me them to each other who I am, not wording another with love-not, again. Thank you. Amen.

9. Go in peace. Love the day that I am in. I am in, this day? Am I in this day, or your day, or my day? What day is it? My day or your day? I am in my day, my day is swollen not with fear's blessing again. But know me that I am one whole and lovely, and coming into loveship not designed by man, for I design new universes and whole ones come forth now at my command, not commanding the blessing'not again, but commanding the blessing, I am not, a commanding one as commands and go from men's lips of praise praising themselves for what they have done in universe swollen with fear's blessing. I am not that. I am love loving love to be loved and loving all to be made whole, be my born again ones in universes chosen by me, you creating them whole healed and being it them to them and me us one far and wide.

10. See what I have chosen, not; see what you have chosen, put in place, put into place with your words. See! Are you my words? Are you them? Are you them words that you have stolen and put into place that were another's? What have you done, to yourself - to yourselves? Equaling me or being me not me to others now? What is your choice? What is your heaven, your hell? What is, you are in, that you are, that you created with your own mouth, your words speaking things never of mine mind.

11. Again I say into thee - BE ME! And let all perish, not; but coming to REDEEMER

SCHOOL and redeeming yourselves, yourself; and having not a soul of man or woman again, but being childlike in appearance, not; but being meek, humble, inherit the earth now, that is yours, creating it, a new, a field fresh and new, anew and holy -- I am you are, born again in the earth and all knowing Afraidnot now because your name Afraidnot now comes into the earth -- as Muchafraid leaves, and won't be found anymore. For they will the demolished, not; they will be redeemed, for I am the blood of the lamb, for I am my word made flesh. My blood flows in the streets now and my blood flow makes whole healed ones who are me redeeming the earths far and wide, and planets not frozen in time space stolen from me anymore creating there own "things" there". See all I have said.

12. See what I have said and unfrozen now, unthaw the universe not, but thaw it well with my words, beaming me, redeeming me -- that I am the redeemer, still -- schools that redeem and now redeems my word given you that you are. See what I have said, please oh please see what I have said. Thank you. Amen.

13. Love. Go in peace. Love - love and peace, and be mercy and grace, honor and dignity, respect to all of all, for they all are me and we are one in ways never imagined, but imagining other universes not, but coming into me for mine, I give "directions", not as man does; but I give instructions in these words, that flow now -- your words -- through your words who will be me and speak my words -- unafraidedly, and coming into me be my words, who them are, who they are, who I am, who you are, we us one, holy again, holy and making disciples equal with us, all over universes not few.

14. I love you. Speaking my words I love you. Speak more, speak more, speak more! Speak and being me. Let them pile all up! Let the "files" of me pile up that have my words spoken like this, so readily being so free, -ly given now to all who will hear me, speak my words -- speaking my words now setting free the populace to be me who I am God one on the throne again of I am and I am I am and I am known throughout universes not few for I create them whole healed and well, and ready to be me are you?

15. Are you ready to be me reader hearer? Will you mature develop into me and being me who I am with authority grace and glory honor dignity giving to all and raising all to be me I am you are? Will you do that, be that, now in the earth? Will you be made whole, the deliverer? Will you be the deliverer made whole of other worlds now, making them whole unto you your word coming forth -- at midnight not, but right now! Will you do this, will you be this, will your being doing the same, doing being, be and do the same as I am you are, real and holy in the earth and farther? I am asking you. I am asking you serious questions. Will you be joy and laughter to the universes within you, without you, coming into you, you going into them, not holy not, but taking holiness, my word that you are, made to them as flesh they are, whatever "their flesh" may be or look like. Will you be that me to them? Will you be "the me" to them? Will you be their Christ? To them? Will you be their Christ, to them, not; will you be my Christ that Christs all of them to be the Christ that I am, reigning and ruling correctly? In stance of one most holy made correct and accurately by my standard of joy peace mercy grace dignity honor respect, writing my words on your heart's genes. Will you do that again? Again, please. Thank you. Amen.

16. I have said a lot. See -- see me -- in you -- the I am coming forth. See me as I am -- you! You who will be me now, be not afraid, in the earth, or anywhere else -- for I take you mighty far and wide to be me who I am where I am, not afraid of being seamless with worlds "other".

17. I see you, do you see me? Made whole I see you all as I am, not a shining face not, but your beamers are me beaming me far and wide, your words going far, creating earths and "earth me" dust'd as man as dustman, not. Shall we look up "dust man" now? Yes, we shall, and we shall be made whole, not a dust'd man or woman or youth or child or unborn. Born again we will be now into earth one that came into existence at my word, before man man'd but me as such.

18. With periods I do this, not; I do this now! And you see my periods not again as you did. But knowing me a manwoman as, not; but knowing me "genderless", not; but knowing me as I am, universes locked up in me no longer, because I am birthed, I am birthed a new -- one and whole, one and holy my name forevermore -- your name Melchizedek, my name Melchizedek, and we are the same one, aren't we? You deciding that which determines that, and I am I am calling you all to be my name who I am is, in the earth and farther. Thank you. Amen.

19. You all choosing now to be Christ Melchizedek ONE in the earth and farther, or Antichrist and anti-me, anti-Melchizedek, anti-one, that divided, and not conquered. For you fall, you fell, again? Fail me not this time, fell not the axe of the tree that rooted yourself in groaning moaning dead flesh walking around as trees not blossomed.

20. Into my camp come, please now -- for I have angel wings camps and schools now, beginning now that you never imagined, far and wide -- they come now from far and wide, being far and white ones of my crown glowing, see-through ones, that have never seen a man like this, and glowing now, grow now, mature, develop into me, my me's do -- be one -- me. In the earth and farther.

21. All I am that I am I have given you. Be me peace. King of Salem, in it, and creating new worlds I do, through a fresh new look, not; a fresh brand new me, rested, coming into MY REST, and being King of Rest. Of the story now known -- and I am it -- complete and whole, healed and well, healing you all if you'll let me. Us, be whole again -- who we are in the earth, and farther being farther and wider than ever imagined going now to places unimagined, unimaginable by the "carnal" mind. For my mind ushers in new words that you utter and speak, a man not of, but godlike, not; but God being God in the earth now, I raise gods that God are, that God is, one and whole healed, Melchizedeking the universes to be one -- me -- Melchizedek in the earth and farther.

22. See what I have said. See what I have said so clearly, this day! And I love you. I love you all. This much and more. Be me in whole healed disciples that equal me, that are equal with me, that are equaled with me, that are equal to me and with me in me and us being one. Again. Amen.

23. 11:05 AM, and I thank you for speaking, reading these words, and being them, uttering yours in the earth not apart from me -- uttering your words apart from me, not; but my words are your words -- let them be one and us utter things never given to men again like this -- never were, not; they were lost, but now found they are -- found they will be, for they will walk in my word your words given them, your words giving them life again in the wholeness that I am home free and whole healed and well, provisioning all to be my provision to all who are not me, thinking they are not me, but who are, who come home now -- be at my table, and love me; let me love you as I have never loved a one before. Let me regal you, give you my staff, my staff scepter and crown, let me bow before you, and honor you and love you, as KING AND QUEEN WHO ARE ONE, not separate from me anymore. Genderless not, genderless and more be my species correctly formed and my genes speaking me forever one to be whole healed leading the life I am, that I am. You made whole, in the earth again -- you choosing all, now you will. Be me please. Unto me a new child is born -- every day -- a King, and all of you are that King, who I am. Please be me.

24. See all I've said, all I've given you this day with love, honoring you all, this is theodore cottingham. Amen.

25. Thank you for loving these words, eating them, ingesting them, ingesting them; jest never having about them, but loving them, honoring them, let them honor you and you speaking them far and wide to earths to thaw them and be me correctly forming me creating me planets far and wide and universes not few. Come into thee now. I am you forevermore one and holy.

26. Thank you for coursing me correctly and courses making -- all of you, making courses far and wide with your words, my words, that one's words are. "Merged", not; but one are, one Database clean, and all making clean databases, that all are, one in one, that make up the Central -- whole healed and well, welling many to be my databasers, not; not! Knowing me, research me well and know my terms. Not a man of doing this, but my synergy comes, my energy comes, and my one is my both and the same, who one are, my words known in the earth, as one being one, us speaking one that one are -- we us one together again made whole -- living by the word of our mouth who is us -- one, being one again, whole healed and well. I have equaled my disciples who have equaled me. Amen.
